NC PrideFest Day Festival 2006 Terms and Conditions

Duke University East Campus, go to website: www.ncpride.org for maps

Vendors/Organizations agree to follow all terms and conditions noted below. Failure to follow them may result in removal of vendor privileges and immediate cessation of operations and vacation of premises.

1. The Pride Committee of North Carolina (PCNC) is a tax-exempt 501c3 non-profit organization and has no source of income other than donations, sales and fees. After July 1st, your application fee cannot be refunded for any reason.
2. The NC Pride Day Festival wishes to remain a community event in every sense of the term. Diversity of vendor items/information is encouraged. However, nudity, indecency or conduct inappropriate for a mixed audience will not be allowed. Information and items of a graphic sexual nature is illegal and cannot be distributed. Information or items provided for education regarding sexuality or safe sex are invited.
3. The PCNC cannot guarantee the weather, the size of the crowd or otherwise assure against potential disaster. Therefore, no refunds will be provided in the event that your organization or business cannot realize its expectations on the day of the Festival. There is no rain date planned since the parade and event will take place even if it rains.
4. No vendor or organization shall sell or offer any items imprinted, emblazoned or marked with any or any combination of the words "North Carolina, NC, Pride, Pridefest, 2006" without express written permission of the Pride Committee of NC.
5. Vendors/Organizations must display vendor tags visibly at all times during the Festival. Defacement, exchange or alteration of vendor tags may result in removal of vendor privileges.
6. Noise, smoke, or visual displays shall not interfere with neighboring vendors or with the enjoyment of the public at the festival. Be reasonable in determining your choice of sight, sound and other special effects. PCNC reserves the right to make a judgement regarding whether a booth is causing interference and ask for removal of any special effects that is causing the interference.
7. Vendors/organizations agree not to make substantial changes to items they plan to sell or give away and agree not to misrepresent the nature of their organization. PCNC reserves the right to remove vendor privileges if substantial changes are not approved in advance.
8. Vendors/organizations agree to cleanup their booth area after the end of the event and remove any items brought by the vendor/organization.
9. Vendors/organizations agree to arrive no later than 9:00 a.m.(without special written permission) the day of the festival and to remove booths and items by 6:00 p.m.
10. Vendors/organizations agree to hold PCNC and Duke University harmless from all liability related to loss, damage or injury to persons or property in any manner arising out of performance of this agreement, whether resulting from negligence or not.
11. Vendors/organizations shall not sublet, share or give their booth space to anyone else. Non-Profits may not allow their booths to be used by "for profit" vendors.
12. Vendors are responsible for all sales taxes, licenses and insurance required by law.
